

You are Invited to... AMY'S FAVORITE THINGS!

The most anticipated event of the year is back and better than ever! On March 7th I will present and demonstrate to you my favorite NEW finds from the HUGE upcoming trade show in January.

You will be given AT LEAST 10 of these items (and I'm not talking about 10 sheets of paper either!) at the Amy's Favorite Things party, plus special discounts on MANY MORE fun favorites!

This is the third time we have done this. The first time we made a HUGE splash with LOTS of goodies for all attendees. They walked away with over $140 in product! The date to clear your calendars of all other events is:

SUNDAY, MARCH 7th at 12:00 PM

The cost is just $75.00* (do the math ladies, that's an amazing deal and it's less than previous years!). I guarantee this event is going to FILL FAST, last year we filled up in under 2 weeks! So, be sure and register forthwith, either in person or by phone... 724-287-4311
