

Where Inspiration Lives

Cordially Invites You to... Amy's Favorite Things

The most anticipated event of the year is back and better than ever! On Sunday, March 18th I will present and demonstrate to you my favorite NEW finds from the HUGE trade show in January.

You will be given AT LEAST 10 of these items (and I'm not talking about 10 sheets of paper either!) at the Amy's Favorite Things party, plus special discounts on MANY MORE fun favorites!

This will be the fifth time we have done this. We always make a HUGE splash with LOTS of goodies for all attendees. Last year attendees walked away with over $150 in product! The date to clear your calendars of all other events is:

SUNDAY, MARCH 18th at 12:00 PM

The cost is just $75.00*, plus a donation at the door to our local food bank of 4 cans of food (do the math ladies, that's an amazing deal!). I guarantee this event is going to FILL FAST, last year we filled up in under 2 weeks! So, be sure and register forthwith, either in person or by phone...724-287-4311

*Take note, this is an attendee only event. No kits are available and no shows forfeit their goodies!
